

"be"

Be careful. Be careful in the train.
Be a nice boy and eat your meal.
Be bold and fight for the right.
Kindly be available for the meeting.

Do not be afraid.
Do not be a coward.
Do not be angry, please.
Please do not be away.

be → are/am/is was/were will be

"be" → are/am/is

I am a student.

I am not a doctor.

Am I late?

Why am I here?

You are honest.

You are not a lion.

Are you the engineer?

When are you free?

He is a great man.

She is not a nurse.

Is the weather nice?

When is it warm?

We are happy.

We are not poets.

Are we free?

Where are we?

You are helpless.

You are not criminals.

Are you boys fine?

Why are you sad?

Mohan and Mary are here.

They are not friends.

Are these boys reliable?

How are they?

"be" - was/were

I was ill.

I was not at home.

Was I guilty?

How was I wrong?

You were a child then.

You were not well.

Were you tired?

Where were you the captain?

He was our teacher.

Mrs. Roy was not angry.

Was the ant hungry?

Where was it then?

We were present.

We were not students.

Were we robbers?

Why were we captive?

You were happy people.

You were not magicians.

Were you hungry?

Why were you so noisy?

They were servants.

They were not quiet.

Were they ill?

When were they helpful?

"be" → will be

I will be a doctor.

We will be workers.

I will not be selfish.

We will not be sad.

Will I be happy?

Will we be members?

Why will I be there?

How will we be free?

You will be gentle.

You will be teachers.

You will not be a slave.

You will not be cruel.

Will you be obedient?

Will you be learned?

Why will you be behind?

How will you be powerful?

He will be sure.

The boys will be noisy.

She will be the judge.

They will not be dangerous.

Will it be correct?

Will the people be violent?

How will it be useful?

When will they be calm?
